

Career Experience

Chemical Pathology /since 1994

- Professor of Pathology (Chemical) at PIMS, Islamabad since 2015, retired in 2017
- Consultant Pathologist at Kulsum International Hospital, Islamabad since 2012
- Professor of Pathology at Rawal Institute of Medical Sciences, Islamabad since 2017
- Health Informatics I since 2007
- Adjunct faculty of COMSATS in Health Informatics (2007)
- President eHAP (e Health Association of Pakistan)
- HMIS (Hospital Management Information System) I since 1997
- Chief of Health Informatics and Advisor/Coordinator for the Implementation of HMIS project PIMS, (special assignment)

Field of Interest/Success Stories

HMIS:

- Since 1997 actively involved in establishing, development and implementation an HMIS at PIMS.
- Appointed as the focal person for the Ministry of health for the Prime Minister Initiative for the development of paperless Hospitals in the federal Govt. Hospitals.
- Advisor with the Ministry of Information Technology for establishing guidelines for a standardized HMIS.

Health Informatics:

- Founding member and President of the e-Health Association of Pakistan (eHAP), which is actively involved in promoting eHealth in the public and private sector.
- Project-Lead for PANACeA which is a network of developing countries involved in research in e-Health, as part of PANACeA
- Team-Lead of expert researchers from Pakistan India, Philippines and Afghanistan under PANACeA to develop an economic framework to show the cost benefit analysis of computerization versus manual system within a hospital.
- Adjunct faculty at COMSATS Institute of Information Technology in Health Informatics, Islamabad

Healthcare Accreditation & Standardization:

- Focal-Person for the Ministry of Health for Hospital Accreditation and Development of Standards for the Federal Hospitals all over the country.
- Chair committee of Hospital Accreditation & Standardization that developed MSDS, a reference document for Punjab Healthcare Commission and rest of the country.
- ISO-15189 Consultant and successfully got this Lab Accreditation for KIH Lab.
- Quality Control Manager for Accreditation and development of Standards in PIMS as per Prime Minister Directive.
- Worked with WHO & USAID consultants and developing quality standards leading to improvement in Health systems.